

"First Lady Of Radio"Gone but never Forgotten

Written by Administrator

Friday, 18 January 2013 17:34 - Last Updated Friday, 18 January 2013 18:56

"FIRST LADY OF RADIO"

Roberta Franklin was a seasoned, social justice organizer living in Montgomery Alabama. Through her efforts, Roberta has garnered broad-based support from the general public and and national officials.

Several years ago, Roberta Franklin began to host a local radio talk show creating public conversations about hidden prisons and the people incarcerated in them. Good citizens of Alabama began to insist on sentencing law and prison reform.

"First Lady Of Radio"Gone but never Forgotten

Written by Administrator

Friday, 18 January 2013 17:34 - Last Updated Friday, 18 January 2013 18:56

By attracting a growing public audience of listeners year after year, Roberta and her wide-open conversations on Let the Truth Shine Radio Show led to citizen mobilization. Former prisoners, loved ones of inmates and their community supporters continue to organize today.

Ms. Franklin was named a "Soros Justice Fellow" by the Open Society Institute in 2004 for her activism in Alabama and her work with FMI. She also received the Excellence in Journalistic Broadcasting Award from The International Bannister Foundation

, Critical Resistance South

, Southern Center for Human Rights and the

Patrick Crusade

at the first Family Members of Inmates Convention in 2003.

Hosting meetings, marches and rallies that have drawn as many as two thousand participants, including notable political figures, Roberta Franklin founded and directs the Family and Friends of People Incarcerated, an organization

"First Lady Of Radio"Gone but never Forgotten

Written by Administrator

Friday, 18 January 2013 17:34 - Last Updated Friday, 18 January 2013 18:56

Ms. Franklin passed at her home on Saturday, January 5, 2013, surrounded by family friends.

"First Lady Of Radio"Gone but never Forgotten

Written by Administrator

Friday, 18 January 2013 17:34 - Last Updated Friday, 18 January 2013 18:56

"First Lady Of Radio"Gone but never Forgotten

Written by Administrator

Friday, 18 January 2013 17:34 - Last Updated Friday, 18 January 2013 18:56
